The Lifestyle Choice

Palladio Homes prides itself on being a prestigious and forward thinking residential construction company, who's modern and up market designs are crafted to suit the modern lifestyle.

Display homes at 1 Conestoga Way, Upper Coomera show how inspiration taken from Andrea Palladio along with functional, practical and spacious entertaining areas allow each design to lend itself to the Queensland Lifestyle.

With over 15 designs of upmarket project homes, the company has set out to deliver practical solutions for buyers, as well as exceptional quality. Palladio Homes understands that everyone has different needs and consequently we offer an in house design service to modify the standard plan providing a one of a kind design. This also allows Palladio Homes as a forward thinker in today's environment, to build on flat, sloping and water front blocks.

Managing Director Brad Fullin is proud to offer his personal guarantee that with every Palladio home you will receive an unsurpassed commitment to excellence and customer satisfaction.
